SPORT LIGHTS

By Crawford Aden

RATING 'EM UP

As the Junior Vol. quintet defeats team after team of the leading five in this section local sport enthusiasts are beginning to compare the present aggregation with the championship team of '29, which consisted of such stars as McCracken, Shunkle, Foyon, McKnight and others.

This year's team probably lacks the experience of the championship five, but likely would prove the stronger team of the two on all-around offense and defensive ability. The reserves of this year's hardwood students are of first class ability and Coach Graham has five men on the bench that he can substitute without weakening the starting five to any great extent.

COMPETITION FOR THE VOLS

The two teams expected to battle it out for this year's MVC championship will come out of Jackson in the person of five youngsters from Lambuth and Moorehead, Mississippi, which is boasting of the prowess of the Sunflower team.

Lambuth, the '35 champions, will once more be the team to beat in the race. The Eagles boast of the return of three all-conference men selected at the tournament last winter. The true strength of the Sunflower

Aggies is unknown due to the fact they have tangled with but one conference foe to date, but with the return of several veterans, they are expected to give the champions, along with the Junior Vols, plenty of competition.

Fred Hardeman's crackerjack team of '35 has been scattered to the four corners of the earth and the Henderson lads are not expected to offer a great deal of opposition, but may prove to be the dark horses of the conference.

SOUTHERN PRESTIGE GETS A TUMBLE

A few weeks ago two of the best basketball teams from the North and the South tied up in a thrilling contest in a New York City gymnasium.

New York College upheld the dignity of the North and the University of Kentucky, pride of the Blue Grass region, was carrying the colors of the South. The Kentucky boys held their own the first half, but the first half seemed to tell on the Southern boys as they weakened and the New York boys literally trampled them in the closing period of play.

Southern teams have already proved their ability to play football or a pair with the rest of the country and now it is up to our eagles to come through and show the world they play a fast brand of basketball below the Mason and Dixon line as they do elsewhere and not admit that we don't have the stamper to stand up under rough going.

Kentucky is not the only victim of the Northern brand of play but Vanderbilt, Louisiana State, Tulane and other top-notch teams fell before the Pittsburgh Panthers, a team with an average reputation in the East.

The difference in the coaching of the South or as it is in the North, it is both. Time will tell.

MORRISON VS. NEYLAND

Coach Ray Morrison, genial coach of the Vanderbilt Commodores, is making a hit throughout the country with his frank talks to the young football player of the high school age and every day sees some football star enroll or prepare to do so in the Nashville institution of higher learning.

Major Neyland is expected to be back in the U. T. told before long and it would not be surprising to see the Major also campaigning for new football material to help uphold his admirable record at the University.

After the disastrous season of '35 the alumni and supporters of the team are sure to go out and try to find new material for a winning eleven.

INTRAMURAL ACTIVITIES

Activities Director H. K. Graham is now in the city looking for a new and popular intramural contest to carry on at the school with the idea of the county basketball team. Much interest has been shown in the contest, which is expected to be more of a social event.

KATIE'S KEYHOLE COLUMN

This said that the public is always howling for something different. So, here howling public here is something different to howl about.

Scene: U. T. J. C. campus.

Time: 1936.

Times change, yes, time change. The buildings are now being used to shell a stray cow, that is all except the gold, which is exactly the same, except it has bars over the windows and doors. And green grows the grass over the mud-covered stones scattered over the one-time muddy campus. We scratched the 50-year-old cinders off a certain stone and were astounded by this epitaph:

Doigan Page lies beneath these humble tum's.
He met his death a-chasin' chickens.
Woe unto them who're always kiddin'.
Even tho' it pests the school is ridin'.

And then we noticed many other familiar names in the old yard. As we brushed away an erstwhile tear, we stumbled over this elaboration:

Here lies at rest, our Jimmie Dent.
May many go the way he went.
A healthy life he lived, 'til when
He didn't bring gher home by ten.

And then this:
Edna Parks, a good crazy.
Her life was just a series of hazy.
At last she's helping humanity
By goin' to 'izing daisies.

She's a good woman.
For when the sheik
By a 'fish-bird was shot
And killed, the snark.

With this last
Assigned to rest.
"Hills" White
The good lad's
Know him best.

Please pay the fare
On Ray DeMoss.
He lies on the right girl
But the wrong "boss".

It is Bob Jack, age 50 and stout.
This is all for her that life was stout.
Here.

Put the story of that gorgeous creature.
Says she to him, she married a peacher.

Her was Miss Burney,
Neat, neat, neat.
She was a real one on time
For the grave yard gate.

"What, burn, burn, a wax candle and a candle?"
"Nah, they be burn smother."

To the top "Use your noodle, miss,
and a noodle!"
Miss Burney: "Woe, my goodness!
Woe is it, I've passed and pulled everything in the can."

MISS BURNEY ATTENDS MEET

Miss Mary Vick Burney, UTJC alumna, attended the midwinter conference of the American Library Association in Chicago last week.

While in Chicago, Miss Burney conferred with Mary E. Baker, head of all University of Tennessee libraries, and heard speeches by B. Lamar Johnson, Dean of Instruction at Stevens College, Columbia, Mo.; Carl M. on Secretary of The American Library Association, and H. W. Wilson, publisher of the United States books of accumulated indexes, Readers' Guide and Agricultural Index.

Headquarters of the A. L. A. are in Chicago and business meetings of the association are held there each winter. A spring meeting of the group is held annually and will be in Richmond, Va., in May of this year.

Miss Burney hopes to attend the Richmond conference.

STRATTON'S DID YOU KNOW THAT—

there are fifteen new students at UTJC this term?

Prof. Derryberry was a Rhodes Scholar and was also a football star at Big U. T.?

Everett McIlwaine is a married man and former school principal? there are 49 head of beef cattle on the experimental farm?

DeMoss has a horse, a bulldog, and a sweetheart?

Robert Harrison, James Dent, and John M. Martin are Methodist church members?

"Bach's Paradise," a cooperative boarding place for boys, has been established?

The crossbills near the railroad are drained by the pipes?

Edward Ingram is a former high school spelling champion?

"Pap" Chavens attend school with Charles A. Landberg and that the school kept him and let Lindy go? (My, my!)

As much as 14 tons of coal per day are burned during cold snaps to heat UTJC buildings?

The dairy and beef cattle farms are equipped with lights, telephone, and running water? (What more could cattle ask for?)

I have several broken New Year resolutions I will sell very cheap?

BY DOROTHY RAINES

Harold Hoffman Honored by Sister
Miss H. Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoffman, was honored by the Boy Scout Cabin Saturday night, January 18.

The honor was bestowed upon her by the members of the cabin, who presented her with a certificate of appreciation for her services to the community.

Miss Hoffman is a member of the Girl Scout Troop and has been active in many of its activities.

Nickelodeon Dance
The Junior League of the year held a Nickelodeon dance at the Junior League building. The dance was sponsored by the Junior League and was a great success. The music was furnished by the Junior League band and many other famous bands. The night was a great success.

'Barnwarmin'
The Junior League for the winter quarter began most successfully by the Ag Club in the form of an old fashioned 'Barn Warmin', which is to be instituted as an annual affair.

The gymnasium was decorated in a timely and clever fashion with lanterns, corn stalks and hay. Guests were ushered in likewise in an humble fashion on their knees.

Music for the ballroom was furnished by Woody Ryan and his Southern Colonels, while the square dancers swung their partners to the melodies of the Silver Leaf Orchestra of Martin.

Miss Dorothy Sue Cannon, candidate for the Home Ec Club, was crowned Queen of the Barn-Warmin during intermission.

Members of the Martin younger social set were entertained with a winter roast at the Boy Scout Cabin Saturday night, January 18.

Faculty Feted by Foods Department.
The Sophomore Foods Class under the supervision of Miss Neta McFee, served a three course luncheon to the Junior College faculty and several members of the Knoxville University faculty, including President James D. Hawkins, Victor M. Davis, Alumni Secretary and John Barnhill, line manager of the University of Tennessee. Also George C. Rowlett, member of the Board of Trustees of Martin. The tables were beautifully decorated in green and white.

Those assisting in the luncheon included Misses Mary Ellen Bailey, Margaret Overton, Dorothy Barton, Ruth Day, Elizabeth Canada, Pauline Holmes, and Elizabeth Warren.

Laying Varies

It is not always the largest bird that lays the greatest number of eggs. Although the ostrich usually numbers 15, the emperor penguin, largest of the species, lays but one egg. All other penguins lay two eggs. On the other hand, some of our small songbirds lay four or five eggs.
